

“My internship experience with GP was more than what I could have imagined. Not only was I able to gain working knowledge, but friends and mentors as well.”

-Ravi
Florida International University

“My internship at Georgia-Pacific was a great opportunity to really experience how accounting is applied across all aspects of the business. It was very helpful to see the mill operations firsthand and learn how our products are actually made. Understanding each step of the production process made it much easier to perform my accounting responsibilities.”

-Matt
Mississippi State University

“My internship at GP provided me with a great deal of hands-on experience to put my undergraduate academic knowledge into practice. Everyone I met throughout my internship was extremely helpful and I truly felt they wanted to see me succeed. The ultimate reward was a full-time opportunity upon completion of the program, and I am proud to say I have begun my professional career at such an outstanding organization.”

-Hannah
University of South Carolina

YOUR DECISION COUNTS

Choosing the right place to start a successful accounting or finance career is challenging. While some opportunities can leave you lost in the shuffle, others offer limited experience and potential.
